Musings in the Interim

A Forgotten Festival

We have just completed the Festival of the Christian Year which is the most important one for people like us and which is virtually unknown by people like us - Epiphany. It is entirely possible that there are folks in this congregation who do not even know the word, much less what is being celebrated. The Congregationalists in colonial New England made the observance of anything not in the bible, such as Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost (Whitsuntide) illegal, punishable by fine and/or imprisonment. That began to change around 1850, but only slowly. Most Protestants eventually recovered the three, along with Advent and Lent during the 20th c., but Epiphany has languished among us to this day.

It is the most important festival for us because without it we would not be here to celebrate any of the others. The word epiphany is simply a transliteration of two Greek words, phanos, which means to light up or shine, and epi which means outward or all around. So, Epiphany is “shining light all over the place.” The formal definition is, The Manifestation of the Christ to the Gentiles. For us gentiles, that is most important, as it is us gentiles for whom Epiphany exists.

Other parts of the Church make much more of Epiphany. If you have any Orthodox friends, you may know they celebrate Christmas on January 6 - the Feast of Epiphany. The Twelve Days of Christmas end on Epiphany, January 6, twelve days after December 25. Many Europeans offer worship services for Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Second Christmas Day, and Epiphany on January 6. I attended them all while I was in Denmark this year. As Luke’s telling of Jesus birth is always the main story Christmas Eve, so Matthew’s account of the adventures of the Wise Men from the East is the Epiphany story.

In our age when Christian faith is being tolerated at best and often, even in the USA, actively opposed, the festivals of the Church are helpful reminders of both who we are and why we are. Whatever gift was received by you and yours throughout the holidays, no matter how wonderful or important, it pales beside the gift of God - himself, Emmanuel, God with us. All our giving and all our receiving come into being directly from God’s gift of God’s own life, the promise that life with God will last, and the daily presence of God with us and with all humankind to nurture and sustain.

Within that larger picture, we give gifts to one another out of thankfulness, joy, and delight. Epiphany celebrates that gift giving is not an occasional, seasonal occurrence but a way of life. And that way of life is nourished each Sunday morning by our gathered community, sharing gifts of God and one another to delight our common life. I look forward to sharing with each one of you there.

At this moment, this March newsletter is planned to be our last bulk mailing. This does not mean we are no longer mailing, but only mailing to those who have specifically requested to receive the newsletter by mail. This means if you would like to continue getting the newsletter mailed to you, you'll need to let Cara know you're interested in receiving a paper newsletter by mail. If you've received the newsletter by mail in the past this does not automatically add you to the list. We are still mailing the newsletter but we are basically starting our mailing list over to be certain we are mailing to people that want & read the newsletter. If you prefer the computer screen to paper, please send an email to fondareformedchurch@yahoo.com. In the email please place "newsletter" in the subject line, and let us know you'd prefer an emailed newsletter to a mailed paper copy. Each month the PDF file of our newsletter will be sent right to your inbox. Choosing both email and paper mail is an option, too.

After this newsletter, we are also planning on having paper newsletters available to be picked up in church. Please let us know your delivery preference by contacting us in one of the following ways. Again, if we don't hear from you, that will mean you're choosing to pick up a newsletter at church.

Outreach Ministry March 2020

We are grateful for your support and generosity as we, (the Fonda Reformed Church) reach out to area communities and the world at large. We have been discussing new ideas and ways to improve/change some of our ongoing events. As Christians, we need to "know" God and to reach outside of our pews. Each one of us have the ability to be HIS hands and feet.

Let's move forward with "clear intent" to serve God and to serve others.

The Mitten Tree is just one example of your generosity and we sincerely thank you. We received 31 hats, 23 pairs of mittens/gloves, 16 scarves, 9 sets of hats/gloves and 1 pair of home made slippers. Thank you to all that participated! Hats and mittens completely covered the tree and students at F.F.C.S. and people visiting the Ecumenical Food Pantry will benefit. Thank you!

You are welcome to contact Kathie Carpenter (518) 853-3330 or any member of the Outreach Ministry if you have or would like more information regarding this ministry. Please know that you're always welcome to join us for meetings or any of the events we sponsor.

Our next Outreach Ministry meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 5th in Fellowship Hall. *Please note We will cancel in the event of bad weather.

Calling all GREETING CARD COLLECTORS!

It happens to all of us... we buy a box of greeting or holiday cards on sale and before we know it we have boxes and boxes of cards! If that's you and you have extra holiday, sympathy, greeting and/or birthday cards just laying around the house then we will take what you're willing to part with! Just drop them off on the office desk for a special project we are working on! Thanks!

As We Approach Easter Be All That You Can Be Together We Are More by Betsy Marshall

A single star in the heavens, a drop of water from the sky, a tiny seed just waiting, a single breath or a smile; so much potential, so little time, possibly lost in the blink of an eye. All have hidden potential to flourish and thrive; sometimes left unnoticed to wither and die. We are but a tiny part of the universe. Like all else we are there waiting for that one thing we need to flourish. We are there, a mass of potential, potential wanting to be nourished ... waiting for someone, something to see us for who we are.

A star alone is a tiny light in the darkness. Joined by others, the light is brighter. Within a group, this single star can make up a constellation, viewed by many... telling a story throughout the generations. Without this star, an empty space, lacking the importance of what is missing and leaving a void.

A drop of water from the heavens, falling to earth; what will it become? Perhaps a single snowflake with its own unique beauty ...in a crisp cool sky. Maybe a single raindrop, soon joined by others to form a cloud that will create a shower ...quenching dried soil thirsting for a drink. Perhaps the beginning of a storm cloud that will create a mountain lake. Maybe just a drop of morning dew nestling upon the petals of a delicate rose petal at the start of a new summer day.

A single breath taken as a child comes into the world. A miracle in the making as a single person becomes a parent. A moment in time beyond all measure; a child is born. A bundle of innocence dependent upon the arms that cradle them. Life changing. Where will they go; what will they become? Oh the importance of that first breath!!

Yes, sometimes it's the tiniest of things that are often the most beautiful. God given, full of undiscovered potential, each in their own way, and so simplistic. Some journeys end with monumental accomplishments, while others spark moments of simple joys and smiles. Each hold importance as they touch others in their own unique ways; all important in God's plan.

As you wake each day and greet the morning's sky, look out and think about how you might change the lives of those you touch. Speak kindly, be gentle as you touch the lives of others. Encourage others with your words and actions. Reach out and be a light into the dark world of those who are less fortunate. Use your gifts and share the blessings of God's unending love.

When the world is filled with love, the possibilities are endless. Each and everyone of us are an important part of God's plan. He has placed a lot of importance on each and every act of kindness, every gesture of love than can be given. Reach out and touch others as only you can. Together we can make this world of ours a much better place. Love knows no boundaries. Faith can uplift those who have all but given up, and change lives. There is a place for everyone in God's plan. When you rise, greet the day with gladness. What will you do today, this month, this year? You can make things happen; the choice is yours. Share God's love. Tell of his forgiveness; how he died for each of us ...so that we can have eternal life.

As the season of lent approaches remember it is a time to prepare your hearts for the greatest single act of love that mankind has ever been given. Invite others into our circle and have them join us at the cross this Easter. Remember, there is strength in numbers and more than enough room in our world for celebrating our faith. Think about the increased JOY we feel as we come together in faith. Let's fill our churches and open our minds to the possibilities of God's love this Easter. Let's begin this Lenten journey together. Reach out for someone's hand and bring them along. I'm praying that our circle of love and faith increases beyond limit this Lenten/ Easter season.

God Bless,

Betsy Marshall

The Lenten Timeline The beginning of Lent is marked by many with ashes hence the name Ash Wednesday. Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, and Ash Wednesday is always 46 days before Easter Sunday, which is Sunday, April 12 this year.

The observance of Lent spans 40 days, ending on the Saturday before Easter. You may be wondering how Lent can be 40 days if Ash Wednesday is 46 days before Easter? That is because the Lenten fast does not include Sundays, which are considered feast days (a celebration of the resurrection)—so the six Sundays before Easter are omitted from the 40-day observance of fasting.

The last week of Lent is called Holy Week and includes Palm Sunday or Passion Sunday (technically not a fasting day), Maundy Thursday or Holy Thursday, Good Friday or Holy Friday, and Holy Saturday or Black Saturday. Unlike Advent, which is a time of celebration and excitement looking forward to an arrival, Lent is observed in a more solemn way preparing for and reflecting on Jesus' sacrificial death. But at the end of Lent is Easter Sunday, and that is the most joyous celebration because our Savior Jesus Christ was resurrected and lives on. Because of his death and resurrection, we are offered new life to live as covenant children in the kingdom of God forever.

What Does the Word 'Lent' Mean? 'Lent' is a shortened version of the Old English word 'lencten', a word which simply means spring (in relation to the season). Over time, the word Lent came to be linked specifically to the Christian tradition of fasting before Easter, which always coincided with the spring."

Who Celebrates Lent? Both Catholics and Protestants celebrate Lent; Lent is more popular among Catholic believers, but the tradition is growing among evangelicals.

What Do People Give Up? Most people give up a favorite food product or beverage, and many Catholics still abstain from meat on Lenten Fridays. Others may give up something they enjoy or something that distracts them from reflection like video games, television, or even social media.

Why Do People Give Something Up for Lent? Most people give something up for Lent to symbolize Jesus' sacrifice and his withdrawal into the desert to be tempted for 40 days.

Do You Have to Give Something Up for Lent? There is nothing in Scripture that requires a 40-day fast before you can celebrate the resurrection on Easter Sunday. If giving something up for Lent causes you to focus too much on your own sacrifice vs. Christ's then don't observe Lent in the traditional way. Instead, start a special devotional in your prayer time if that's more helpful or read through the gospels each week and so on. It's more important to have solid daily habits that involve time with the Lord and prayers of thanks than it is to complete a 40-day fast successfully. Consider the following:

Daily contemplation of the price Jesus paid for my sins and my inability to meet God's standard of righteousness
 Daily commitment to rely more on the Holy Spirit and less on myself
 Daily reflection on the endless supply of God's mercy and grace
 Daily gratitude for the ways he allows me to be his hands and feet in a hurting world

Why Should You Observe Lent? Rather than focus on the excitement of the baskets and egg hunts, Lent can help keep your family focused on the real meaning of Easter and what Jesus' sacrifice means for our salvation. So that on that joyous Easter Sunday, the celebration is all the more sweet and meaningful.

"I don't know about you, but I often need refocusing. I have to purge distractions and force awareness of what is important. Life gets crazy. All of us have family responsibilities, work duties, and everyday life tasks that make the cross more distant than it should be. Putting the cross back into our line of vision grounds us in His love. It's not that those of us who serve Christ allow a gap between us and the cross on purpose, but life and all its obligations sometimes add a haze to what happened on Calvary. We become so wrapped up in the right now, that we need to be reminded of what made us whole and able to breathe the air of freedom in the first place. ... For me, the point isn't really about what exactly I give up or what I choose to do differently. It's about forcing myself to make new habits that remind me of the true gospel story which brings forth the revelation of Christ in my life."

5 Reasons Not to Observe Lent:

To slim your waistline, To make God happy, To cure an addiction, To showcase your spirituality or virtue, Because it's the cool trend.

Jesus, the journey you took to the cross was full of betrayal, grief, torture, and darkness, yet your love for us, your people, propelled you onward. Help us to comprehend just how powerful that love is, that you would suffer such a cruel death to make a way for us to be with you in glory forever. What a gift, Jesus. What a gift. May our praise never cease in this season. May our worship be unending. May our love for you find new depths. May this season bring new hope and new healing. May we journey toward the cross prayerfully and purposefully, even through the pain, our doubt, our questions, and our searching. May we find resurrection life springing up from this old dusty ground, and may we be surprised by joy in all of it. May Easter be a day of complete celebration as we rejoice in our risen Savior and praise our gracious Father. In you, we find the truest joy, Jesus. Thank you, thank you, thank you. We praise you in all of it. Hallelujah and amen.
